FOR CONTRACTORS

FAIR CREDIT REPORTING ACT DISCLOSURE FOR THE PROCUREMENT OF CONSUMER REPORTS

_____ (the “Company”) may request a consumer report and/or investigative consumer report, as defined by the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act, on you from a consumer reporting agency in connection with your contractor application and for contracting purposes. A consumer report is a compilation of information that might affect your ability to contract for the Company. These reports may contain information about your character, general reputation, personal characteristics and mode of living. They may involve personal interviews with sources such as your neighbors, friends or associates. The reports may also contain information about you relating to your criminal history, credit history, driving and/or motor vehicle records, education or employment history, or other background checks.

You have the right, upon written request made within a reasonable time after the receipt of this notice, to request disclosure of the nature and scope of any investigative consumer report prepared by contacting the Company and GoodHire.
